ABOUT US

We Help Everyone
If you are on the cancer journey, Stewart’s Caring Place is here to help. We help children and families deal with a unique set of mental and physical challenges. We help caregivers. Caregiving is a commitment of your very being.

We Strive to be:
• An exemplary resource for needed cancer support services.
• A sustainable community-based organization.
• If you or someone you love has been diagnosed with cancer, hope and compassion can be found here.

We Offer:
Programs and services include lectures and workshops, a resource center, healing arts, community referrals, movement classes, counseling, attorney consults, children and family programs, support groups, wigs and many more at no cost.

Where to Begin:
Stewart’s is your landing place when you or someone you love has been diagnosed with cancer and you’re not sure where to start. Appointments are available to help you learn more about services at Stewart’s and which community resources would be helpful for you and your family.

Providing support services, free-of-charge, to individuals and families touched by cancer.
