My journey started for me back in April of 2019 where I was diagnosed with leukemia AML and I started my journey and getting treatment up at Seidman. They've done a wonderful job and I'm happy to say I'm in remission right now.

But, although the doctors do wonderful work in reaching a stage of me feeling my best there's areas of life through cancer that doctors can't meet. That's when my friend told me you have to come check out Stewart's. The first thing I did was, I got this beautiful hair from Stewart's.

I was so blessed to go into the wig room and have someone assist me and just get me a look because for me hair was a real important part of my life and what I do. Being diagnosed with cancer kind of put me in a in a club or a group that I didn't want to sign up for, I call it my C Club.

Those with cancer diagnosis know what it's like. So, making new friends and connecting with people there's a sense of community here at Stewart's.

If you're a little hesitant about finding out about Stewart's give them a call just reach out. There're people here that want to just encourage you and just love you through your situation. My life has changed for the best because of it I'm grateful for Stewart's.
